

TREE OF LIFE BAND

The Tree Of Life Band stands out due to its harmonious blend of styles such as reggae, soul, hip hop and jazz. Because of the members multiple musical backgrounds, the twelve head strong combo with its infectious and energised music ranges in between. Varied colours and nuances find their place in the music, coming down into Reggae and create a unique sound. Diversity in unity. and probably every fan and enthusiast of sophisticated composition will be pleased.

2008 the band was initiated by first lead singer Robin “RobSteady” Bujnowski. In time the formation changed and grew, second lead singer Luis Linton got on the team and also backing vocalists Shavu and Ruth started to contribute their own songs.

The lyrical content is very important to the band. Spirituality, social commentary, politics and love songs are just some of the topics on the menu. 2014 the band published their debut album “New Wave” at the sold out “Bunker Ulmenwall” Bielefeld. On November 12th 2016 the latest “EP 20|16” was digital released and immediately caught interest of radio stations up to the UK.
